Studio Aphorisma's atelier is located on a hill in Tuscany in a former farm holding nestled among vineyards, cypresses, olive trees and centuries old oak trees, near Cassia, an ancient road that connects Florence to Siena.

Our atelier represents a reference and cultural exchange point for people boasting different experiences in the international textile and art sectors. During certain periods throughout the year, it turns into an open lab where courses are offered that focus on teaching weaving techniques and art subjects.

Surface, Knot & Volume in Fabric Design

23 May - 1 June / 25 July - 3 August 2024

In the course 'Surface, Knot & Volume' we will investigate the idea of fabric as an interface between the volume of a body and external space. The focal point of our research will be the knot, understood as the key principle of three-dimensional form, but also as an element of connection and transition from surface to volume.

Participants in this course will be led to explore the interaction of fabric with space and the fabric as a means of expression through the textile medium. Working on the loom, we will experiment with different types of surfaces, knots and loops together with the various ways of moulding and modelling the textile surface plastically.

Topics covered: Two-dimensionality, three-dimensionality, mass, skin, knot, loop, surface, structure and volume will be important parts of our textile research. In particular, the notion of knot and surface and the various ways of containing or defining a volume will be addressed.

Directors of the course: Anna Silberschmidt, Nicola Sansò

Surface, Knot & Volume at the Bauhaus

16 - 21 September 2024

The main objective of our project is to examine the teaching methods, techniques, aesthetic and pedagogical concepts of Bauhaus and to comprehend their lasting impact on modern fabric design and contemporary artistic practices.

During the course we will design and weave fabrics inspired by the theme Surface, Knot & Volume at the Bauhaus.

However, we will not only be inspired by the strict geometric shapes that prevailed in design at that time, but also by the creative processes and poetic aspects of everyday life at the school.
